Capital Markets Day – 25 January 2017

Victoria PLC, (LSE: VCP) a manufacturer, supplier and distributor of design-led carpets and floorcoverings, is pleased to announce that it will be hosting a Capital Markets event for investors on Wednesday 25 January 2017. The event will provide a detailed insight into the Company's market opportunity and business strategy as well talking through the integration of the acquisitions made in 2016.

The event will take place at its Westex site in Cleckheaton, West Yorkshire and will be hosted by Executive Chairman Geoff Wilding and Group Finance Director Michael Scott as well as the wider management team of subsidiary businesses including John Cooper, Managing Director of Interfloor. Transportation from Leeds station will be provided and the day will include a tour of the Westex facilities.

Geoff and other members of Victoria's senior team look forward to meeting existing and potential investors. If any investor would like to attend and are not already registered for the event please contact Buchanan as detailed below.

No new material information will be disclosed at the event.
